COOPERATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN ROSSTANDART AND CEN/CENELEC

September 17, 2013 in St. Petersburg hosted the signing of a cooperation agreement between CEN/CENELEC and Rosstandart.

The new agreement will allow to:

1. Russian and European industry jointly develop standards that take into account climatic, geographical conditions and technological features.
2. Make European standards more useful by Russian industry, which will facilitate the access of European companies on the domestic Russian market.
3. Use European standards upon their acceptance as national in Russia as evidence of technical regulations of the Customs Union.
